In magnificent isolation, the Schaffhausen area of Klettgau with its undulating vineyards is a true wine-growing paradise. Sheltered from the rains of the Black Forest, Pinot Noir is the main variety grown here. There are not many grower-producers here and the Baumann estate in Oberhallau is one of its finest. The wines of this estate are full of character, integrity and frankness. Their most renowned product is Zwaa, a name derived from two terroirs and two wine-growers, Ruedi Baumann and Michael Meyer of Bad Osterfingen.
