Weingut Bad Osterfingen Schaffhausen, German Swiss

- ★ Gault & Millau Switzerland 2014
- ★ Swiss Wine Memory .

The head of this ancient estate, Michael Meyer, is a chef as well as a wine-grower. So it is no surprise that the estate is equally famous for its restaurant and its wines. Wearing both hats, the chef and wine-grower selects the perfect wines for his menus. His speciality wines are Pinot Blanc and Pinot Noir. He is also the co-founder of the two Zwaa wines, one red and one white, developed with Ruedi Baumann, a wine-grower in Oberhallau. These two wines are a fusion of the product of the two terroirs. The Bad Osterfingen estate also grows a very fine Pinot Blanc, which is similar to the wines of Burgundy.
