For generations, the Obrecht family and its wines have contributed to the image of the Graubünden as a quality wine production region. Three-quarters of the area is planted with pinot noir but vinified in several variants, some of which are very prestigious and considered among the best in Switzerland. Such as the Trocla Nera, which means "black grapes", aged in barrels or the Monolith an upscale Burgundy like wine. As for white wines the Müller-Thurgau is a success. Vinotiv Member
